

✓ tick - means that the dish contains the specific allergen. Not all allergens are mentioned on our menu boards, or kiosks. If you have a food allergy or intolerance, please tell the counter team so that can support with allergen guidance. Always check the allergen information each time you visit, as recipes may change. Further detailed ingredient breakdowns are available on each product page at www.chopstixnoodles.co.uk

M - means the dish may contain allergens. The term may contain allergens is used when an allergen is not intentionally added to a product, but where there may be a risk of cross-contamination from manufacturing, handling, transport, storage, or cooking including fryer oil. This cross-contamination is unintentional and unavoidable
